

TIJUANA TRIP COVENANT

COVENANTING - Two way, promise, agreement, commitment, contract or trust, concerning: behavior . . . expectations . . . responsibilities

RELATIONSHIPS:

to each other and to the Adults/Youth/Children that we are with:
respectful, positive, open, flexible, understanding, patient, giving space, trustworthy, courteous,
honest, caring, give of self without expecting in return

SCHEDULING:

BE PUNCTUAL at all times!

GENERAL BEHAVIOR:

As God's people, we will always do our best to live together in harmony as a community.
Treat each other with respect at all times.
Always use only language that will not offend others (no swearing, cursing, vulgarity)
Laws of the U.S. will be obeyed (stealing, drugs, drinking, smoking/chewing tobacco).
Travel in groups of at least 3 when away from the group area.
In Mexico, have an adult along when possible or when requested.
Always (if under 18) let your "Adult Supervisor" know where you are going.
Persons are expected to pick up after themselves. Cooperation in chores is expected.
Be aware of appropriate behavior in another country.
Never use inappropriate social media sites.
Refrain from use of electronics when requested.
Participate in group activities.

CONFLICT:

In the occurrence of a conflict those in conflict are expected to:
Talk with each other first in a calm and caring manner.
If it cannot be talked out, go to a leader.
Do not take conflicts or tensions into a group setting.
In the occurrence of a conflict the group is expected to:
Be sensitive, loving and supportive.
No gossip, blame or pouting.

As a group traveler to Tijuana, I agree to keep the above guidelines. I understand behavior problems may result in participants being sent home at their expense with no refund of moneys collected.

Signature _____(youth) Date _____

As a parent of a participant, I understand that behavior problems may result in my child being sent home, upon the decision of the leaders of this event, at my expense with no refund of moneys collected.

Signature _____(Parent/guardian) Date _____